EIHAB Human Services Promotes Eddie Castillo to Assistant Comptroller

SPRINGFIELD GARDENS, NEW YORK, July 29, 2019 – EIHAB Human Services is pleased to announce that Eddie Castillo has been promoted to Assistant Comptroller, reporting to the Comptroller and the CFO. Castillo was hired in March 2016 as Accounts Payable Coordinator.

“Eddie Castillo is an exemplary employee, and we are thrilled to see him step into the role of Assistant Comptroller,” said Ahmed Hegazy, CEO of EIHAB Human Services, adding that the nonprofit seeks to encourage career growth among its staff members and strives to promote from within.

In his new position as Assistant Comptroller, Castillo will be responsible for maintaining financial and accounting records for the nonprofit. He will supervise the accounting operational functions to assure all functions are performed in a timely and accurate manner, as well as ensure that the accounting systems, policies, and procedures are in compliance with the New York State Office for People With Developmental Disabilities (OPWDD) and other regulations as required. He will oversee all phases of operational accounting and banking, among other responsibilities, and will assist with annual audits.

“I am here to support EIHAB Human Service’s mission in any way I can and am looking forward to the continued success of our team!” said Eddie Castillo, remarking about his new position as Assistant Comptroller. “I want to thank the EIHAB leadership for this opportunity, for which I am extremely grateful. I look forward to continuing to grow, as I eagerly take on my new responsibilities.”

Before joining EIHAB Human Services, Castillo had a decorated career in the U.S. Marine Corps, serving from 2000 to 2013. He is a combat veteran of both Operation Iraqi Freedom and Operation Enduring Freedom. For his service, he earned a Combat Action Ribbon. Eddie also earned a Navy and Marine Corps Commendation medal and twice earned a Navy and Marine Corps Achievement medal.
